

Claim No. 147.
Under Article 11. Treaty of 11th June 1866. with Creek Indians.

The undersigned, Pompey Redmouth, Aged 35, a Freedman of the Creek Nation, and Refugee, being duly examined and sworn, deposes and says: Whilst living with his family, on his place near Bruner Town, Creek Nation, and sometime in December 1862, he was compelled to fly therefrom hastily, to avoid being pressed into the Rebel Service, and went to Gibson, where he remained, a refugee, until the close of the war, when he returned to the Nation.

Further: at the time he so fled his home, he owned and possessed, and necessarily abandoned and lost all the property hereinafter stated, and never afterwards recovered the same or any part thereof.

The undersigned, Hunter Grayson, and Thomas Bruner, Free, men of Color, of the Creek Nation being jointly examined and sworn, depose and say: They are not interested in the claim of Pompey Redmouth in any pecuniary way whatever; that they have heard the foregoing Affidavit read to them, and know its contents to be true and correct in every particular. That, of their own knowledge the said Pompey, at the time of his flight from home, as aforesaid, did own and possess, and did necessarily abandon and lose all the property stated in his deposition.

Further these deponents do not say.
